O'Beirne, who has been absent from the city since his election to the graddensy of the association, returned his thanks for the hence conferred upon him. Speaking of the President of the United States, Oct. O'Beirne exit he is undoubtedly the friend of the online of the President of the United States, Oct. O'Beirne exit he is undoubtedly the friend of the soldiers and sallors. If these sets were published to the world no one for a moment could don't that the President was a true friend to the soldier and sallor.

Lieux H. C. Gooding and Capt. O'Hagan were appointed as a special committee to set with the room committee in furnishing the room.

Capt. Geyes offered the following resolutions:

Assates: That this Union heartily sympathise with Gov. Swam and the National Union man of Maryland in their efforts to have the laws of the State enforced and the peace and welfare of the people preserved.

Resolved. That we heartily condemn the action with Gov. Swan and the National Union men of Maryiand in their efforts to have the laws of the State enforced and the peace and welfare of the people preserved.

Resolved, That we heartily condemn the action of the organization of soldiers in the city of Battimore known as the "Boys in Blue," who have feel of the law, to deprive National Union men, who have ever been loyal to our Government, of the sacred right of franchies, thus preventing a majority of the lays in one of Battimore from controlling the affaits of that city.

Resolved, That the disposition to defy all civil law and to disturb the peace in different sections of our country is the natural fratis of the Congressional plan of exclusion, and that we look for continued riot and bloodshed so long as this system of State disorganization is persisted in.

Capt. McConnell said he could hardly believe that soldiers would take up such a cause as that signed "Boys in Blue." He had read of them in the Chromete, but the simple fact of it being in that paper was enough to cast doubt and make one believe that no such organization existed.

Capt. Gayce said there was no doubt that such an organization as the Boys in Blue existed in Baltimore, and they were led on by John W. Forney, aman who lived by appealing to the passions of the people, and doing all he could to incite them to riot and bloodshed. Capt. Gaye was opposed to the resolutions. It was a loss of size of the second of the resolution interfers. It was a loss shall and he authorities of Maryiand could dispose of it.

After come debate the resolutions were adopted.

La Joyse offered the following, which was adopted:

Insamuch as the New York election will take place on the 6th proring; be it therefore.
